Brit Tzedek's Rabbinic Cabinet is the leadership of a 1,500-strong network of rabbis and cantors who work to advance the goal of a negotiated two-state solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. The Cabinet provides support for Jewish clergy and moral leadership to the American Jewish community by asserting a vision of peace and justice for Israel and its neighbors. The Cabinet strives to reinforce the connections between Jewish values and Jewish community action seeking to resolve the conflict. The Brit Tzedek National Rabbinic Cabinet Chair is Rabbi John S. Friedman (Durham, NC) and Co-Chair is Rabbi Julie Saxe-Taller (Berkeley, CA).

The Cabinet's initiatives have included: publications such as A Rabbinic Guide to 40 Years of Occupation and Pointing the Way to Peace and Security: A Resource For Rabbis and Cantors on Israel's 60th Birthday; commentary writing in the national news media; open letters addressed to the Jewish community and elected officials, placed in print and broadcast media; and sample activities and sermons to guide rabbis in engaging their congregations on questions of peace and diplomacy.

Boston-area rabbis or cantors who are interested in joining Brit Tzedek's Rabbinic Cabinet are encouraged to contact us at boston@btvshalom.org.
